Memorial Bound – Brookland-Cayce (0-3) will make its seemingly annual trip to Memorial Stadium next Friday for a 7:30 p.m., kickoff vs. Columbia (4-0) ... B-C has played at the historic Midlands facility, located in the Capital City's Rosewood community, 11 of the past 13 seasons ... During that time frame the Bearcats have compiled an 11-5 mark as the visiting team at Memorial Stadium ... Coach Brad Coleman's troops own a 5-2 record at Memorial Stadium, which underwent an extensive renovation three years ago and ranks as one of the better venues in the Midlands area for prep football ... The '01 and '06 B-C squads lost to Dreher at Memorial Stadium, but the Bearcats have posted wins vs. A.C. Flora ('01 & '03), Dreher ('03 & '05), and Columbia ('05).

A Capital Affair – The Bearcats lead the series with the Capitals 15-10-1 since the 1960s and have won three of the past five meetings since the rivalry was resumed in 2002 ... The matchup is usually a defensive affair as Columbia eked out a 7-6 victory last year at The Cage, while B-C slipped past the Capitals, 14-7 in 2005 ... Six of the past nine meetings between the two programs have been decided by a touchdown or less.
